

Natalia Casorati

Natalia Casorati is artistic director of Mosaico Danza organization since 1993, of INTERPLAY International contemporary dance festival since 2001 and of the project-season INSIDE/OFF since 2007, curating choreographic residencies and projects supporting the mobility of young choreographers in collaboration with national and international partners. Among others, DROP / DANCE ROADS OPEN PROCESS, project winner of the notice Culture Europe 2007/2013 Cooperation Projects. Since 2012 she's been promoting and coordinating within the ANTICORPIXL network - which she joined as a partner - COLLABORATION AWARD, action aimed to support young Italian choreographers who are starting their career.

Numerous collaborations on choreographic residencies and projects supporting the mobility of young choreographers with national and international partners such as TanzTendez - Munich (De), Trois CL - Luxembourg, CDC Le Gymnase - Lille (Fr), Zodiak Center for new dance - Helsinki (Fi), Centre de Documentacao e pesquisa em danca di Rio de Janeiro - Brasil, Grand Studio - Bruxelles (Be).

She's been member of the jury within Movin'Up, Spazi per la Danza Contemporanea, GD'A del Veneto, Emilia Romagna e Puglia, Teatri del Tempo Presente in Turin and internationally, in France for Recon(ai)ssance curated by CDC Les Pacifique and Maison de la Dance di Lyon (2011), in 2015 for HiverÔclites competition, within festival LES HIVERNALES in Avignone (Fr) and in Netherlands for Diorapthe Dance Award 2015. In October 2017 she was member of the jury NID/Italian Dance Platform.